

TECHNICIAN

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Perform assigned maintenance tasks in strict accordance with the technical documentation provided.
- Plan and carry out assigned maintenance tasks in an effective manner by ensuring all required assistance, materials and tooling are on-hand to complete the task within the agreed time frame
- Perform inspections/tests of all systems and installation.
- Clearly communicate with the Engineer status of work performed, any issues arising and provide constructive feedback/recommendations regarding any maintenance difficulties.
- Adjust, align and calibrate all systems using hand tools, gauges, instruments and test equipment.
- Modify aircraft systems or components in accordance with Engineering Orders, Drawings and/or Technical Publications.
- Assists in the departure and arrival of aircraft
- Performs additional tasks as required and instructed by the Engineer.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Relevant Vocational, Tertiary or Trade qualification
- Basic Type License (CAT A = A1+A4 |or| CAT C = C1+C2+C4)
- Minimum Engineering Diploma in Aviation more preferable.
- In depth knowledge of aircraft systems maintenance fundamentals appropriate to the area.
- Minimum 3 years as an aircraft mechanic with at least 1 year' experience on modern turbine aircraft with practical experience on corporate aircraft systems preferred.

SKILLS NEEDED:

- Read, understand and implement instructions from Technical Manuals and Documents.
- Capable of determining the most appropriate tools and equipment to perform the task at hand.
- Detail oriented to ensure very high standards of aircraft serviceability and appearance.
- Ability to work independently as well as part of a Team, as required.
- Practical outlook to determine most suitable solution.
- Good communication skills particularly in written and spoken English.
- Professional manner for interaction with high level positions.
- Good math skills to solve problems.
- Ability to work under pressure.
- Pride in performing to the best of own ability.

Note: During recruitment process you will be required to attach the following:

- Resume / CV
- Passport-size photograph
- Copy of Passport
- Copy of Basic License
- Copy of Highest Educational Certificate